

DIAMAS Project consent form

Dear

Interviews will be conducted in the context of the DIAMAS project with a range of Institutional Publishing Service Providers (IPSPs) to capture European and publishing diversity. By signing this Agreement, the Interviewee consents to the collection, processing, and use of their personal data for this specific purpose. During the interview process, personal data types, limited to names, contact information, and job titles of the Interviewee, shall be collected. For security purposes, the dataset collected in the context of the interviews will be anonymized prior to its public release, ensuring that no personally identifiable information is disclosed.

By signing this Agreement, the Interviewee explicitly consents to the collection and processing of their personal data (limited to names, contact information, and job titles) for the specified purpose mentioned in the first paragraph. The Interviewee acknowledges their consent has been freely given and understands they have the right to withdraw their consent at any time without affecting the lawfulness of processing based on consent before its withdrawal.

The personal data collected during the interviews will be retained according to the provisions of Article 5.1.e of the GDPR for a period of 2 years after the end of the project.

The Interviewee is aware of their rights under the GDPR. The Interviewee can exercise these rights by contacting the Data Controller, AIX MARSEILLE University, through the following email: DPO@univ-amu.fr.

By signing this Agreement, the Interviewee acknowledges that they have read and understood the terms and conditions outlined herein and voluntarily consent to the collection and processing of their personal data as described in this Agreement.

Interviewee's Name:

Date:

Signature:

Funded by the European Union

The DIAMAS project has received funding from the European Union's Horizon Europe research and innovation programme under the grant agreement No 101058007.